U.S.A. vs. Julio Arreola

Docket No. 5:12-CR-245-1F

Petition for Action on Probation

COMES NOW Matti Liebler, probation officer of the court, presenting a petition for modification of the Judgment and Commitment Order of Julio Arreola, who, upon an earlier plea of guilty to Demanding and Seeking a Bribe, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 201(b)(2)(A) and (B) and 18 U.S.C. § 3238, was sentenced by the Honorable James C. Fox, Senior U.S. District Judge, on July 16, 2013, to a 60-month term of probation under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation office.
2. The defendant shall abide by all conditions and terms of the home detention program for a period not to exceed 60 consecutive months. The defendant shall be restricted to residence at all times except for pre-approved and scheduled absences for employment, education, religious activities, treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court obligations or other activities as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures specified by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for electronic monitoring services as directed by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall pay a $100 special assessment and $31,470.81 in restitution

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Since being placed on probation, the defendant has remained unemployed. However, it should be noted that the defendant cares for his children while his wife is at work. In consideration of the above, the probation officer respectfully recommends the government be responsible for all costs associated with the location monitoring program. This modification will allow the defendant to apply his financial resources toward the restitution owed in this case.

The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing agreeing to the proposed modification of supervision.
